Make a copy of this form for your own records and give or mail it to: Park Ranger Susan Cook, Homestead National Monument, 8523 W. State Hwy 4, Beatrice, NE 68310.

Space is limited to 25 young people. So, submit your application IMMEDIATELY. Applicants will be notified immediately as to their selection status.

Young people coming out of grades 4 through 8 will investigate, create, and perform as a local historic figure. Campers will meet at Beatrice Public Library Monday through Thursday May 21-24 and perform on Friday, May 25. Camp leaders are Dr. Ann Birney and Dr. Joyce Thierer of Ride into History, 620-528-3580, 620-344-0314, ridehist@satelephone.com, www.historicalperformance.com .

NOTE: THIS CAMP IS FREE and is brought to our community by the Nebraska Humanities Council and Homestead National Monument with major support from the Nebraska Cultural Endowment and also with support from the Gage County Historical Society, the Beatrice Public Library, Ride into History Cultural and Educational Project, Inc, and some really fine volunteers. If you would like to help out, contact Carla Loemker at 402-228-3922 or Barb Rieken at 402-239-4502.

EACH APPLICANT MUST WRITE A PARAGRAPH ON A SEPARATE SHEET OF PAPER ABOUT WHY THEY WOULD LIKE TO BE CHOSEN FOR THE CAMP. Please staple to the back of the application. You may write about your desire to perform; why you enjoy researching; your love of history; anything that relates to why you are hoping to be chosen.
